Sermon Text	Sermon Notes
Ephesians 6:15 and, as shoes for your feet, having put on the readiness given by the gospel of peace. Isaiah 52:7 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace, who brings good news of happiness, who publishes salvation, who says to Zion, "Your God reigns." [8] The voice of your watchmen—they lift up their voice; together they sing for joy; for eye to eye they see the return of the Lord to Zion. [9] Break forth together into singing, you waste places of Jerusalem, for the Lord has comforted his people; he has redeemed Jerusalem. [10] The Lord has bared his holy arm before the eyes of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God. [11] Depart, depart, go out from there; touch no unclean thing; go out from the midst of her; purify yourselves, you who bear the vessels of the Lord.	People are restless and want peace. We are eager heralds of how people can have peace! I. The Gospel of peace (what does this mean?) II. We are Heralds not salespeople III. Sermon Application Questions

Prayer Requests

1. How are people restless apart from knowing God through Christ?

This week our family will lift up requests for:

2. How does the footwear metaphor relate to gospel readiness and what does that look like in our lives?

3. Discuss how having the gospel makes us able to stand against the devil and makes us ready to share it with others.

This week our family will praise the Lord for:

4. What does the "peace" part of "The Gospel of Peace" refer to?

5. Discuss this statement by Iain Duguid-
"We sometimes think of evangelism as a kind of spiritual, multi level marketing program, in which it is our job to browbeat friends and relations into making a purchase that they never needed or wanted, and then, if at all possible, recruit them into doing the same thing to their friends and relations. No wonder we are not enthused about the prospect! Heralds are vastly different from Tupperware sales people though. They don't have a product that needs to be marketed; they have wonderful good news that needs to be trumpeted!"
